NO RELIEF FOR GAS CONSUMERS STATES MANAGER GAS COMPANY

Harry Henry Brown, chairman of the gas consumers' meeting has received from L. J. Lowe, manager of the Nevada Gas company, an acknowledgment of his statement of the attitude of the Tonopah people toward the gas management. The letter contains nothing more than a renewal of his suggestion that a local corporation be formed to take over the plant. The letter, in part, is as follows:

"Either the electric company or the water company could successfully operate the gas business in connection with their other affairs, but in this instance I think the water company would be preferable for several reasons unnecessary to enumerate but I think it would have to be shown with reasonable certainty that it could be done with financial success, and as it would be essential for us to convince them on this point I cannot at present at least see where a petition from gas users to the water company to do so would be of much avail, and which also seems to me it would be a matter of negotiation between the water company and this company. I take it, however, that your suggestion is merely for the purpose of furthering thought, hence I will, within a very short time prepare and send you a statement showing what can be done so that you can take it up with the water company, or if you prefer, I will do so direct. I, however, wish you to feel I am using my unstinted and very best efforts."

IMPRESSIONS OF LOCAL SOLDIER ON THE FIRST NIGHT OF PEACE

Private Billy Kendall, who is with company E, first engineers, with the army of occupation, writes from Wicken, Germany, a strong human interest letter dealing with his own experiences and the sentiment of the boys who are over there. The letter, addressed to Mrs. Zeb Kendall in part, follows:

"You know we haven't had much time to write during this campaign on account of pursuing the boche so strong that they just had to throw up their hands and quit. I tell you there wasn't much fun attached to it though. As the squareheads would leave a town we would enter it right on their heels and in each place white flags would be waving showing that civilians were there. They had stayed in their homes the whole period of the war so you can imagine what suffering they went through. It was a hard, life-some job, but we treated them in the field, something that never had been done. They were mistaken just once. We were in the field."

ST PIERRE WILL OPEN STOCK OF FOOTWEAR

Walton St. Pierre, the Reno shoe man, is putting the outside touches on his new store opposite the Mizpah hotel, where he will open in a few days with bargains in all sizes and styles of men and women's footwear. St. Pierre has established himself as one of the institutions of Nevada and when it comes to buying any article in the boot or shoe line there is none in the country that can compete with this house. St. Pierre established himself first in Goldfield during the boom when he made such a success that he was prevailed on to broaden out by establishing a store in Reno. In that city St. Pierre put some class in a branch of business that had never gone beyond a sideline with the big stores of that city and he had control of the best trade in the town before he had been going three months.

BOY AT THE RIVES HOME

Born in Reno, Saturday evening, January 25th, to the wife of Henry M. Rives, a son, Mrs. Rives, it will be remembered, was formerly Miss Marguerite Raycraft of this city. Her mother, Mrs. Madge Raycraft, was with her when the event happened and on her arrival home in this city yesterday afternoon, said that every body was doing as nicely as could be expected.—Carson News.

BLACKMAIL PROVOKES OFFICER TO ASSAULT

are barking up the wrong tree." Garside, who claims to be the proprietor of the morning paper, pleaded the baby act and, when accosted by Chief of Police Grant, said that his hired man wrote the articles and that he was not responsible for them. It was at this stage in the game that Grant told Garside what his carcass was composed of. Then the fracas took place. There was no attempt on the part of Grant to inflict any physical injury as a severe cuff might have knocked off one of his ears. The bystanders who saw the encounter made no attempt to interfere and those within hearing of the conversation felt that the whipping was deserved and fully merited.

In conversation with Chief of Police Grant after the affair he said he was open to criticism at any time but no man living could blackmail him and get away with it. Public opinion sustains the officer.

ABOLISHING POLL TAX FOR SOLDIERS

CARSON CITY, Jan. 29.—Immunity from paying poll taxes for discharged soldiers and sailors is provided for in an amendment to the state constitution offered by Speaker Fitzgerald.

The Esmeralda delegation then had an inning. Bills Nos. 4, 5 and 6 all tending to relieve the paid on the Esmeralda county treasurer were taken up and passed. The first abolished the office of Goldfield chief of police the second cut down the district of the county commissioners, and this trims out the voice from the outside, which has been dictating policies in Goldfield, and the third abolished the office of county purchasing agent.

Senator Harrington dug up an old score when he introduced senate bill No. 7, to reimburse the three deputy state school superintendents who had just such a bill before the senate two years ago. The three, McCracken, Knemeyer and Comford had expended their own money after the state can shy. The money was expended on the advice of the governor and the superintendent of public instruction. This bill does not meet with the approval of either house as it is known the indebtedness was contracted in direct opposition to the wishes of the last assembly which refused to sanction an appropriation. The bill was introduced for the superintendents of instruction since they were regarded as political adjuncts of the administration. The new bill has gone to the ways and means committee again.

LAST OF DECEMBER BROKE ALL RECORDS

Last December was not the coldest month in the history of the Tonopah station, but the last ten days were the coldest on record, according to the official report issued today by Observer Asher, who was preceded by illness from collating the statistics at an earlier date. The normal for the month is 31 degrees while the reading showed a mean temperature of 28 last month with an average daily deficiency of 3.5 degrees. The maximum for thirteen years is 58 and the lowest 4 for the same period. Fifteen days showed the maximum lower than freezing and, on the minimum side, 22 days ranged from 32 to 5. Notwithstanding this twelve days reported 100 per cent sunshine. The coldest December in the history of the office was experienced in 1909 when the mean fell to 24. Total precipitation was 74 with a snowfall of 5.3 inches, with the greatest occurring on the 6th and 7th when 50 of an inch fell. Total precipitation for the year dating from the previous September was 2.04 inches compared with 3.05 normal.

The wind movement was relatively light, the only great velocity being reported on the 8th when the wind attained a speed of 38 miles.

Owing to the fact that the first fifteen days of the month were abnormally warm, the temperature for the second half did not bring the mean reading to the record point for frigidity.

SARIC ASSAULT CASE VENTILATED

Hearing of the alleged wife-beating charge against Gregory Saric filled the court of Justice Grier this morning with a crowd that overflowed across the street. Mrs. Saric and her family were present and the case was conducted by the district attorney's office represented by Lowell Daniels. Defendant was represented by Milton Ditch. The first proceeding was to secure a jury which included all morning as the various salesmen were subjected to a rigorous examination regarding their prejudices both from a racial and domestic view point. Finally when adjournment was taken at noon eleven men were in the box. Shortly after resuming, the twelfth juror was secured from another panel which Chief of Police Grant had been ordered to subpoena. At that time the box field the following: Dave McKay, Clarence Mayes, Ira McMillan, George Roberts, John H. Troy, George Anderson and George Roberts. The White, George I. Beckley, W. T. Cuddy, W. P. Clendenen, James Madison, J. H. Friday and Matt Malla. These were subjected to preliminary challenges which altered the

AMUSEMENTS

ELsie FERGUSON IN SUPREME PICTURE

If you were a beautiful young woman and your first husband had been a dashing army officer and your second husband was an old man whom you married in a moment of weakness, and you found your love for your dead husband growing stronger until you could not bear the presence of your second husband, and to complicate matters, if your first husband's best friend fell in love with you, what would you do? These are some of the problems that Elsie Ferguson battles with in "Rose of the World," which will be the attraction at the Butler today. "Rose of the World" is adapted for the screen from the book by Agnes and Edgerton Castle, who have won fame in the literary world for the grip and suspense and mystery of their stories, and "Rose of the World" was their crowning achievement. Miss Elsie Ferguson is the star, this being her third appearance in pictures. Miss Ferguson is especially suited to heavy roles, having won her greatest successes on the regular stage in characters similar to "Rosemond," the highly emotional part she interprets in "Rose of the World." Added to the feature will be five standard vaudeville acts, a perfect reproduction of the original acts as shown in the big vaudeville theaters. Tomorrow, Constance Talmadge, in "The Studio Girl," another delightful comedy drama.
